SAC D. K. Brown, Jacksonville Office, has advised that the nine members of the group of ministers and Rabbis have been arrested by the police at Tallahassee, Florida, at the airport and are en route to the Leon County Jail. Brown did not know the charges on which the individuals had been arrested but is ascertaining this and will advise the Bureau.

Three members of the professional group were arrested at Ocala, Florida, bus station today. This group arrived in Ocala at 12:23 p.m. (1:23 Washington time). The individuals left the bus and went into the white waiting room. Five or six white males in the waiting room complained that the individuals had stepped on their feet or bumped into them. Chief Criminal Deputy of the Marion County Sheriff's Office stated he did not want any trouble at the station. The riders stated they wanted to go into the restaurant and eat. When the deputy told them they could not go into the restaurant and the individuals stated they planned to go ahead, the three riders were arrested and charged with failure to obey the lawful order of an officer and attempting to incite a riot.

8. APPROX. The three individuals arrested are male, male, and male,

8. APPROX. The bus left Ocala at 1:40 p.m. for Tampa and the other four freedom riders departed on that bus.

The New Orleans Office has advised that five freedom riders were arrested at Jackson, Mississippi, today upon their arrival from Nashville, Tennessee, when they tried to use the lunch counter in the white waiting room on an integrated basis.

FREEDOM RIDE, 1961

On June 2, 1961, Mr. Jack A. Travis, Jr., City Prosecuting Attorney, Jackson, Mississippi, furnished Special Agent Charles William Bone with a copy of Order for Cash Appeal Bond entered in the Municipal Court of the City of Jackson, First Judicial District of Hinds County, Mississippi on May 30, 1961, signed by himself and Jack Young, Counsel for Defendants as listed:

Julia ~~Aaron~~; Harold ~~Andrews~~; David J. ~~Dennis~~; all of whom were members of the first group of Freedom Riders arrested upon their arrival on Trailways Bus at Jackson, Mississippi on May 24, 1961. Peter ~~Ackerberg~~; Jerome M. ~~Smith~~; Lucretia R. ~~Gollins~~; Doris ~~Castle~~; and Frank ~~Holloway~~; all of whom were members of the second group of Freedom Riders arrested upon their arrival on a Trailways Bus at Jackson, Mississippi on May 24, 1961.

Mr. Travis stated that he desired that the enclosed orders be made available to the Department of Justice due to their interest in the matter and to specifically point out two facts: (1) The fact that city officials at Jackson, Mississippi waived the posting of a surety bond by these defendants after consulting with the State Attorney General's Office inasmuch as Mississippi law requires the posting of a surety or property bond on appeals. (2) The fact that as stated in the orders no persons, having property within the State of Mississippi were willing to serve as sureties for these defendants.

Enclosed herewith are the copies of the orders furnished by Mr. Travis.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Memorandum to Mr. Belmont
RE: FREEBUS

Five to twelve freedom riders plan to leave Minneapolis by Greyhound Bus for Nashville, 6/9/61. At Nashville they will be briefed by CORE and will proceed to Jackson. This group includes several who are connected with Fair Play for Cuba Committee, one of whom closely associates with Socialist Workers Party.

[redacted] freedom rider arrested at Jackson, 6/8/61, and reported to be [redacted] ceased active employment several days ago and will be dropped from [redacted] payroll 6/19/61.

[redacted] Montgomery, Alabama, attorney, states he has been designated by U. S. District Judge Johnson to prepare a case attempting to show that freedom rides place an undue burden on interstate commerce. is that so we know of him?

[redacted] requested FBI investigate for his benefit. Desired investigation would include interviews with officials of organizations cited in the antiride injunction and interviews with freedom riders and others.

[redacted] stated that if the FBI cannot conduct this investigation he plans to ask the court to issue an order instructing the FBI to investigate.

[redacted] United States Attorney Hartwell Davis, who referred [redacted] to the FBI, states he knows of no regulation, obligation or precedent which would require the FBI to investigate. He does not feel the FBI has any responsibility to investigate for [redacted]

Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall states [redacted] request may have arisen because [redacted] was sent to Montgomery to discuss the case with the judge in view of the fact that the Department believes the judge exceeded his authority when he entered the injunction.

Burke Marshall believes it is [redacted] responsibility to produce whatever evidence he has to support the allegation that freedom riders interfere with interstate commerce. He said no investigation should be conducted but [redacted] may refer any further questions to Burke Marshall or United States Attorney Davis. [redacted] is being so advised.

Montgomery County Citizens Council held public rally, Montgomery, Alabama, evening of 6/8/61. Speakers referred to the Attorney General in derogatory terms, and he was called a traitor by Carl Herbert Lancaster, Chairman.

MacDonald Gallion, Alabama Attorney General who was main speaker, read what was purported to be a verbatim transcript of the telephone conversation between the Attorney General and the manager of the Birmingham Bus station on 5/15/61.

Gallion also criticized the Attorney General and alleged that various leaders of CORE have communist associations. In referring to Dr. Walter Bergman, professor at Wayne University, Gallion alleged that the university is a haven for communists, including a professor who was convicted of spying for Russia.
No such spy case was located in a search of indices or recalled by key espionage supervisors.

Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall has received information that Negroes in Memphis, Tennessee, will have peaceful mass demonstrations throughout the day on 6/9/61. Local authorities have been advised.

Birmingham police have now arrested a total of six individuals in connection with the disorder at the Trailways Bus

DETAILS

Nine freedom riders from New Orleans arrived in Jackson, Mississippi, at 10:20 a.m., Central Standard Time (CST), 6/8/61, aboard the Illinois Central Railroad train "City of New Orleans." They entered the white waiting room and were arrested without incident.

10/11/61
Twenty-one freedom riders were convicted of breach of the peace in Jackson on 6/8/61. This includes: the above group of nine; ~~nine~~ who arrived in Jackson and were arrested on 6/7/61;

the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), who arrived in Jackson and were arrested 6/8/61; and who arrived in Jackson by Greyhound Bus on 6/7/61. MISS. LA

Each of the above individuals was sentenced to serve four months in jail with 60 days of this sentence being suspended. A $200 fine was also imposed on each defendant.

With regard to Mark Lane and Percy Sutton, the "New York Times," on 6/6/61, carried an article concerning their trip which stated in part: "Assemblyman Mark Lane and Percy Sutton, President of the Manhattan Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said yesterday they would leave tonight to investigate the arrests of freedom riders in Alabama and Mississippi. They plan to offer assistance as lawyers."

Ninety-three freedom riders have been arrested at Jackson, Mississippi, since 5/24/61. Seventeen have been released on bond, two have been released upon the payment of fines and seventy-four remain in custody. (Five more arrested 6/9/61.)

Nashville Christian Leadership Council, Nashville, Tennessee, advised that a group of five freedom riders was scheduled to leave Nashville 6/8/61 by train for Birmingham where they will transfer to another train arriving in Jackson, Mississippi, 5:00 a.m., CST, 6/9/61. A group believed to be identical with the freedom riders from Nashville arrived in Birmingham at 8:45 p.m., 6/8/61, and transferred to Southern Railroad train "The Pelican," which is due to arrive at Jackson 5:30 a.m., 6/9/61. The group did not test any facilities in Birmingham and there were no incidents. (These five freedom riders arrived at Jackson 5:30 a.m., 6/9/61 and were arrested without incident. This was at 7:30 a.m., Washington time.)

[redacted] the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE). [redacted]

[redacted] contacted the Chicago Office 6/8/61. [redacted] stated that eight freedom riders were to leave Chicago by train at 7:40 p.m., 6/8/61, to arrive in New Orleans at 4:45 p.m., 6/9/61. In New Orleans they will arrange through CORE for transportation by bus to Jackson, Mississippi. [redacted] stated that she wished to determine if the FBI would give clearance to the individuals making this trip as CORE desires that no freedom riders be subversive or have criminal records. The confidential nature of FBI files was explained to her.

Among the names submitted by [redacted] as having volunteered to engage in the freedom ride was [redacted] a white female, [redacted] years of age, who was reported to be a member of the Communist Party in April, 1960.

A confidential source in Minneapolis advised on 6/8/61 that at least five and possibly twelve freedom riders will leave Minneapolis by Greyhound Bus en route to Nashville, Tennessee, on 6/9/61. At Nashville they will be given a briefing by CORE and will then proceed to Jackson, Mississippi. The group includes: [redacted] formerly the subject of a security investigation and presently a member of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. [redacted] is also [redacted] the subject of a security investigation; [redacted] who attends meetings of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee; [redacted] member of [redacted] Fair Play for Cuba Committee and who closely associates with the Socialist Workers Party; [redacted] who attends Fair Play for Cuba meetings; and [redacted] who is [redacted] of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee.

With regard to [redacted] who was among those convicted at Jackson, Mississippi, 6/8/61, it has been previously mentioned that she claimed to be employed as [redacted] [redacted] It has been discreetly ascertained that [redacted] ceased active employment with [redacted] several days ago and will be dropped from the payroll 6/19/61.

[redacted] a Montgomery, Alabama, attorney, contacted Senior Resident Agent Spencer Robb 6/8/61 and stated he had been referred to the FBI by United States Attorney Hartwell Davis. [redacted] related that United States District Judge Frank M. Johnson, Jr., through [redacted] has designated

[] to prepare a third party case against CORE and the other organizations and individuals listed in the temporary injunction previously entered against freedom rides in Alabama by Judge Johnson. [] represents the city of Montgomery in this regard.

[] stated that he had inquired of United States Attorney Davis as to the extent of assistance that [] could expect from the FBI and he inquired of Agent Robb whether the FBI will conduct investigation for his benefit to determine whether the freedom rides have placed an undue burden on interstate commerce. He desires that interviews be conducted with officials of the organizations cited in the injunction, freedom riders and other individuals.

[] stated that if the FBI cannot conduct this investigation he plans to ask the court to issue an order instructing the FBI to conduct the investigation.

SAC Held discussed this matter with United States Attorney Hartwell Davis who said that he knows of no regulation, obligation or precedent which would require the FBI to conduct such investigation and he does not feel that the FBI has any responsibility to conduct such investigation. Davis referred [] to the FBI because of the possibility that the FBI might have some authority or obligation with which Davis was unfamiliar.

[] request was discussed with Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall, Civil Rights Division, who remarked that [] request may have arisen from the fact that [] was sent to Montgomery to discuss this matter with Judge Johnson because the Department is of the opinion that the judge exceeded his authority when he entered the temporary injunction against freedom riding in Alabama. Marshall expressed the opinion that it was the responsibility of [] to produce whatever evidence he has to support the allegation that freedom riders are interfering with interstate commerce. He said that no investigation should be conducted by the FBI but that if [] has any further questions he may contact either Marshall or United States Attorney Davis.

SAC Held has been instructed to tell [] that his request for investigation has been referred to United States Attorney Hartwell Davis and that if Davis is unable to answer any question that [] may have [] may wish to call Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall.

The Montgomery County Citizens Council held a public rally on the evening of 6/8/61. Carl Herbert Lancaster, Chairman of the Council, referred to "that colossal misfit, United States Attorney General Robert Kennedy." He also called the Attorney General a traitor and said that the Attorney General planned the course of freedom riders through the South and worked behind the scenes to get southerners to "accept integration or else." Lancaster also said that John Seigenthaler had a list in his pocket containing names of all of the freedom riders.

MacDonald Gallion, Attorney General for the State of Alabama, was the main speaker. He read what was reported to be a verbatim transcript of the telephone conversation between the Attorney General and George E. Pruitt, manager of the Greyhound Bus station, Birmingham, Alabama, 5/15/61. This was the conversation in which the Attorney General requested Pruitt to obtain a driver so that the freedom riders could leave Birmingham by bus. Details of this conversation have been previously reported but in Gallion's version of the conversation the Attorney General used "hell" in one instance and used "damn" twice.

Gallion quoted Susan ~~Wilbur~~ ^{LA}, a white female freedom rider, as having stated in an affidavit that the Attorney General discussed the freedom rides on the telephone with Diane Nash, a freedom rider coordinator. Wilbur stated the freedom riders were not worried about possible violence because they were promised Federal protection all the way to New Orleans.

Gallion referred to the Attorney General as "Bobby-soxer Kennedy" and said he had decided to give up cowboys and Indians to play politics fast and loose to the endangerment of citizens. Gallion further stated that the Attorney General ordered Federal marshals to invade Alabama against the overwhelming wishes of the citizens and with "wanton disregard for state sovereignty and state laws." He added that this was uncalled for, unnecessary and "simply political propaganda."

Gallion alleged that the following leaders of CORE have records of communist association: James Douglas Peck, A. J. Musty (phonetic), Dr. Walter Bergman, Roger Baldwin, Philip Randolph, Lillian Smith, Allen Salmes (phonetic), Ira D. Reed (phonetic) and Goodwyn Watson. Gallion pointed out that Dr. Walter Bergman is a professor at Wayne University. He stated Wayne University is a haven for communists, including a professor who was convicted of spying for Russia. (No such spy case located in search of indices or recalled by key espionage supervisors.)

Gallion's speech included purported citations from a communist publication in an attempt to prove that efforts to desegregate are a communist program directed from Moscow. Gallion urged his listeners to stay within the law but to fight with determination to preserve the southern heritage and said, "We must not allow ourselves to be drawn into violence."

The master of ceremonies, whose identity has not yet been determined, stated in reference to "Bobby-soxer Kennedy", "We are going to make a case against that man, we want to see him embarrassed by the truth. He is guilty of conspiracy - and anybody who can't see that is a fool." This speaker also asked why freedom riders are not being arrested for violation of the Federal injunction against freedom rides in Alabama.

Dr. Henry Lyons, Pastor, Highland Avenue Baptist Church in Montgomery, informed the Citizens Council rally that Montgomery is a target of Red Russian communism because Montgomery is a symbol of southern traditions. He expressed full confidence in Alabama officials and specifically named L. B. Sullivan, Montgomery Commissioner of Public Affairs, in this regard and stated, "Our heritage in the South is sacred and must not be surrendered."

Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall advised on 6/8/61 that [redacted] the Federated Department Stores in Nashville, Tennessee, has told him that the Negro community in Memphis will have a mass demonstration throughout the city on 6/9/61. This will begin in the morning and last throughout the day. It will include sit-ins in business establishments, restaurants, parks, etc., and will be accompanied by parades and other demonstrations of a peaceful nature. [redacted] informed Burke Marshall that the Mayor and the Police Commissioner

are cognizant. Burke Marshall said he was advising us so that we could also inform local authorities. He understood that we would take no action other than to inform appropriate local authorities. The Memphis Office was instructed to alert all law enforcement agencies and public officials.

On 6/7/61 the Birmingham Police arrested John Hampton Thompson on a charge of disorderly conduct and he was released on $300 bond. Thompson previously admitted to Bureau Agents that he appears in a photograph taken of the disorder at the bus station on 5/14/61. He admitted to detectives that he was a former klan member and that he was present at both the Greyhound and Trailways Bus depots in Birmingham on 5/14/61 but denied having participated in the disorder. This is the sixth individual to be arrested by the Birmingham Police Department in connection with the disorder at the Trailways Bus station in Birmingham on 5/14/61.

At 11:50 p.m., 6/18/61, SAC Weeks, Atlanta, was called with regard to the freedom riders scheduled to leave Nashville, Tennessee, at 10:30 p.m., 6/18/61, for Atlanta where they are to join other freedom riders and proceed to Montgomery, Alabama, and Jackson, Mississippi.

At 1:33 a.m., 6/19/61, SA Atlanta, advised that had not been aware of the change in plans whereby the freedom riders were coming to Atlanta instead of going to Montgomery from Nashville. Bernard Lee of the Freedom Ride Coordinating Committee, telephoned his Nashville office and determined that the group had actually left Nashville at 10:30 p.m., 6/18/61, en route to Atlanta. Lee did not know their arrival time. He stated that nine other freedom riders would join the Nashville group in Atlanta and they would then proceed to Montgomery, Alabama, and Jackson, Mississippi. Lee said that the details of the trip including departure time would be worked out on the morning of 6/19/61.

The Greyhound bus depot, Washington, D. C., advised that the bus leaving Nashville at 10:30 p.m., is scheduled to arrive in Atlanta at 6:40 a.m.

Lee is to keep advised of all developments and will recheck with Lee early Monday morning. was instructed to call the Bureau as soon as he has the details of the group's itinerary.

O
 FREEDOM RIDERS-MIS

SAC D. K. Brown of the Jacksonville Office advised that group two ~~of~~ (the interfaith group) this evening proceeded to the Tallahassee airport. This group is composed of 18 individuals. They all bought tickets on Eastern Airlines Flight 268, destination New York. When they arrived at the airport, the restaurant facilities were closed along with restroom facilities ostensibly because plumbers were working on them.

When the flight was called eight boarded the plane and the remaining ten stayed in the terminal. These individuals stated they would stay all night or for a month if necessary until the restaurant and restroom were opened.

The Tallahassee City Commissioners had a meeting and instructed the Chief of Police to close the airport completely after the last flight leaves at 11:42 p.m. EST. At that time they will be asked to leave and if they do not they will be put out of the terminal.

SAC Brown advised that this development is being closely followed in view of its potential for creating an incident.

SAC Brown further advised that the second part of the professional group arrived at the Greyhound bus terminal in Jacksonville at 5:15 p.m. EST. They were met by members of the first group of the professional group and tested facilities with no incidents. They are scheduled to stay overnight at various private residences.

Six freedom riders were arrested upon their arrival in Jackson, Mississippi, at 1:02 PM (Central Standard Time) 6/11/61. They traveled by Greyhound bus from Nashville, Tennessee. The trip and the arrests were without incident.

As of 3:00 PM (Central Standard Time) 6/11/61, a total of 110 freedom riders had been arrested at Jackson, Mississippi, since 5/24/61. Twenty-two have been released on bond, four have been released upon the payments of fines, and 84 remain in custody. Those who are in custody in the county jail are taking their meals; however, eight freedom riders in the city jail are refusing to eat.

The press reports that the Hinds County Board of Supervisors, Jackson, Mississippi, has prepared papers for the purpose of transferring some of the freedom riders to work camps where they will chop cotton and do other manual labor.

The Senate Judiciary Committee of the Alabama State Legislature on 6/9/61 returned a favorable report on a bill to outlaw freedom rides in Alabama. The bill reportedly is based upon the premise that freedom rides will likely cause riots and the bill provides penalties of $300 and/or imprisonment for six months.

Klansmen will then come to the store and take the agitators out the back door. He stated that that would be the end of the agitators.

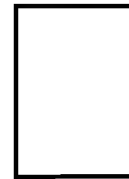

Kenneth Adams stated that in the Government hearings in Montgomery, Alabama, the Government was in possession of records and recordings that should not have been available to them. Adams said that he took the Fifth Amendment to all questions asked of him at the hearing. He claimed that he knew two or three days in advance that the "freedom rioters" were coming and was prepared for their arrival. He said that he and several others expect to be arrested in the near future as a result of the FBI investigation.

After the meeting Adams told a small group that the klan must be very careful as the FBI is up to the minute on klan activities and know when, where and who attends klan meetings. Adams also remarked that the FBI knows more about the klan than he does.

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont

Five freedom riders from Daytona Beach, Florida, proceeded through Tallahassee to Thomasville, Georgia, and back to Tallahassee, 6/15/61. There were no incidents. They plan to proceed through Gainesville and Ocala to Tampa and then return to Daytona Beach, 6/16/61.

Union and professional group arrived at Jacksonville 6/15/61 and spent the night in private homes. They are to leave in two groups for St. Petersburg 6/16/61 arriving at St. Petersburg 12:45 p. m. and 3:55 p. m., 6/16/61.

The group of rabbis and ministers proceeded to Tallahassee, Florida, without incident. Upon arrival at the Tallahassee airport they purchased tickets to New York but when they found the rest rooms closed for plumbing repairs and the restaurant closed, allegedly for a monthly cleaning, nine of the group remained at the Tallahassee airport while the others went to New York.

Those who remained at Tallahassee stated they would remain until the lunchroom opened if they stayed a month. At midnight they were informed by the police that the airport was closed and they left to spend the night at a private home.

The rabbis and ministers have reservations to leave Tallahassee by Eastern Air Lines at 8:38 a. m. (EST) 6/16/61 for New York. [redacted] plan to leave the group at Atlanta to come to Washington, D. C.

A klansman was observing the freedom riders in the Jacksonville bus station. Another klansman was observed near the bus station in Tallahassee and was taken to the police station where he was admonished.

An explosion demolished a trash can near Vermont Avenue and H Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C., at 11:40 p. m., 6/15/61. Anonymous calls were received by the police and the Bureau alleging that additional bombs had been planted in hotels, bus depots and restaurants and would be set off unless the freedom rides are discontinued. The police searched the bus depots but found no bombs.

A freedom rider in Jackson city jail advised police that CORE officials plan to meet with Attorney General 6/16/61 and that Attorney General will arrange for their release from jail.

ACTION

Memorandum is being prepared for the Attorney General.

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont

DETAILS

The following freedom riders were released on $500 bond each at Jackson, Mississippi, 6/14/61:

[redacted] a Negro male, who was arrested 5/24/61;
[redacted] a white male, who was arrested 5/30/61;
[redacted] a Negro female, who was arrested 6/7/61.

Since 5/24/61, 111 freedom riders have been arrested at Jackson. Twenty-nine have been released on bond, four have been released upon the payment of fines and 78 remain in custody. Forty-five of the freedom riders were transferred from Jackson to the Mississippi State Penitentiary, Parchman, Mississippi, on 6/15/61.

All freedom riders now in custody at the Jackson city jail are eating. Fifteen of those in custody at the Hinds County jail in Jackson are refusing food.

[redacted] Student Central Committee (SCC), Nashville, Tennessee, advised on 6/15/61 that five freedom riders would leave Nashville at 1:00 a. m., 6/16/61 by Greyhound bus. They will change buses at Memphis and will arrive at Jackson, Mississippi, at 12:45 p. m., 6/16/61.

[redacted] also stated that efforts are being made to form another group of freedom riders to travel from Nashville to Jackson via Birmingham and Montgomery, Alabama. It is planned that this group will leave Nashville within the next several days.

Information has been received from the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), New Orleans, that eleven white and four Negro freedom riders will arrive at New Orleans 6/18/61 by train from Berkeley, California. They will proceed to Jackson, Mississippi, by bus 6/19/61 or 6/20/61. CORE, New Orleans, also anticipates a group of freedom riders who may arrive from Arizona 6/18/61.

The "Berkeley Daily Gazette," Berkeley, California, has reported that Jorgia Siegel and Robert Martinson are among a group of eleven freedom riders who will depart for New Orleans by train 6/17/61. Information has previously been received indicating that one Jorgia Siegel attended classes conducted by the Alameda County Communist Party (CP) on 1/26/61 and 2/9/61.

Information has also been received that one [redacted] was sent to the Berkeley, California, area in October, 1948, by the Workers Party and that Martinson was active in the Independent Socialist League (ISL) prior to May, 1952.

On 3/6/57 [redacted] appeared as a defense witness before a military board at Fort Ord, California, and testified that he was then a member of the ISL.

The Workers Party was reportedly formed in April, 1940, as a result of a split within the leadership of the Socialist Workers Party. The Workers Party reportedly changed its name to ISL in 1949.

Charles R. Oldham, national chairman, CORE, St. Louis, advised on 6/15/61 that a meeting of CORE held 6/14/61 decided to postpone the freedom ride which had been contemplated for 6/17/61. There are no definite plans at this time for any freedom ride originating from the St. Louis area. Oldham remarked that he was going to Jackson, Mississippi, by airplane arriving at 7:50 p.m., 6/16/61 but he did not furnish any information as to the nature of his trip.

Two Negro male and one Negro female freedom riders traveled from Anderson, South Carolina, through Greenwood to Columbia, South Carolina, 6/15/61. One Negro male and two Negro female freedom riders appeared at the Spartanburg, South Carolina, bus terminal on 6/15/61 and proceeded to Columbia, South Carolina. Approximately nine or ten other Negroes who were believed by the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division to be freedom riders also appeared at the Greyhound bus station in Columbia. Facilities including the lunch counter were tested without incident.

Captain [redacted] Columbia, South Carolina, Police Department (PD) advised that eight unidentified Negroes whom he assumed to be students from Allen-Benedict College occupied seats at the white lunch counter in the Kress 5 & 10¢ store on 6/15/61. Service was refused but no incident occurred.

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont

A group of five freedom riders consisting of two Negro males, two Negro females and one white female left Daytona Beach, Florida, at 5:30 a. m., 6/15/61 by Greyhound bus and traveled to Jacksonville departing from Jacksonville at 8:27 a. m., 6/15/61 by Greyhound bus. They tested the facilities at Lake City and at Tallahassee where they ate in what had formerly been a dining room reserved for the white race. From Tallahassee they traveled by Trailways bus to Thomasville, Georgia, where they tested the facilities and returned to Tallahassee arriving there at 3:50 p. m. They then went to the Negro church [redacted] and spent the night at [redacted] home. There were no incidents in connection with the travel of this group. Fla.

The Daytona Beach freedom riders planned to leave Tallahassee by Greyhound bus at 9:30 a. m. (EST), 6/16/61 proceeding to Tampa, via Gainesville and Ocala, Florida. They are scheduled to arrive in Ocala at 2:25 p. m. (EST), 6/16/61. From Ocala they will go to Tampa by bus or train and will then return to Daytona Beach.

The union and professional group of freedom riders which left Washington, D. C., 6/13/61 en route to St. Petersburg proceeded from Charleston, South Carolina, to Jacksonville, Florida, by Greyhound bus 6/15/61. They traveled in two groups on two separate buses and tested the facilities at Charleston, Beaufort, Savannah and Jacksonville without incident. This group advised the Jacksonville Police that they would spend the night of 6/15/61 at private homes at Jacksonville departing Jacksonville on two Greyhound buses leaving at 6:00 a. m. and 9:00 a. m. (EST) 6/16/61 to arrive at St. Petersburg, Florida, at 12:45 p. m. and 3:55 p. m. the same date.

The group of rabbis and ministers who left Washington, D. C. on 6/13/61 en route to Tallahassee, Florida, arrived in Jacksonville, Florida, by Greyhound bus at 7:34 a. m., 6/15/61. They departed for Tallahassee at 8:34 a. m. and tested the facilities at Lake City, Florida, before arriving at Tallahassee at 12:40 p. m., 6/15/61. Upon arriving at the Greyhound bus station in Tallahassee, the group ate in the lunchroom without incident. At 2:40 p. m. they arrived at the Tallahassee airport in private automobiles.

The airport had been sealed off by police who only permitted those having legitimate business to enter the premises. The entire group purchased tickets to proceed to New York City by Eastern Air Lines and discovered that the plumbers were repairing all rest rooms and that the restaurant was closed, allegedly for a monthly cleaning. When their flight was called all but nine of the group boarded the plane. Nine remained in the terminal building and inquired as to whether the airport was open all night. They were told that it is. One of them remarked that they might as well stay there all night and the group later indicated that they would remain in the building until the lunchroom opened even if they stayed there for a month. The flight departed for New York at about 3:25 p. m.

Chief of Police Frank Stoutamire was instructed by the Tallahassee City Commissioner to close the airport after the last flight left at 11:42 p. m., and to ask any persons who were still there to leave the premises. Stoutamire believed that this action was precipitated by Mayor Cordell and expressed dismay that the Mayor had apparently frustrated the Chief's plan to accommodate the freedom riders and permit them to leave Tallahassee without incident.

At midnight police asked the group to leave the airport and they went to the home of [redacted] a Negro minister. They have reservations to leave Tallahassee at 8:38 a. m. (EST), 6/16/61 via Eastern Air Lines to arrive in Atlanta at 10:15 a. m.

Fla.

From Atlanta [redacted] plan to proceed to Washington, D. C. where they will arrive at 3:03 p. m., 6/16/61. The others will return to New York from Atlanta.

During the time that freedom riders were in the Greyhound bus station at Jacksonville, Florida, [redacted] a member of the Florida Klan, was at the bus station apparently observing the freedom riders. [redacted] in turn was closely watched by the police.

Shortly after the rabbis and ministers arrived in Tallahassee, Florida, a policeman observed [redacted] a member of the Tallahassee klavern, Florida Klan. [redacted] was near the bus station talking with six white men. [redacted] was requested to go to the police station where he was admonished by Chief of Police Frank Stoutamire and he was detained for over two hours. [redacted] later attempted to enter the bus going to the airport but was turned away by the police.

Fla

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont

The Metropolitan PD, Washington, D. C., advised that an explosion occurred at about 11:40 p. m., 6/15/61. The detonation demolished a trash can in the vicinity of Vermont Avenue and H Street, Northwest. Fragments were recovered which were believed to be pieces of a two-inch pipe. There were no injuries and damage was confined to the trash can. Cooperative facilities have been offered to the PD.

At about 12:40 a. m., 6/16/61 the police received an anonymous phone call in which a man alleged that he had come to Washington, D. C., because freedom rides originate here and that he would set off more explosions such as the one on H Street. He alleged that he had planted five pipe bombs in the downtown area.

At 12:46 a. m., 6/16/61 an anonymous male telephoned the Bureau and stated that since Washington is where the laws are made he had planted a number of bombs in hotels, bus depots and restaurants and they would be set off like the bomb had been set off on H Street unless the freedom rides are discontinued.

The police subsequently advised that all bus stations had been searched and no bombs were located.

Chief of Detectives [redacted] Jackson, Mississippi, PD, advised on 6/15/61 that a freedom rider in the Jackson city jail had stated that CORE officials plan to meet with the Attorney General on 6/16/61 and that the Attorney General will arrange for their release from jail.

Fourteen freedom riders arrived at Jackson, Mississippi, from New Orleans, Louisiana, by train on June 20, 1961, and were arrested. They were convicted on the same date and each was sentenced to serve four months in jail and was fined $200.

One hundred thirty-one freedom riders have been arrested at Jackson since May 24, 1961. Forty-three have been released on bond, four have been released upon paying fines, and eighty-four remain in custody. No freedom rider is refusing food at the Jackson City Jail or the Hinds County Jail.

A group of approximately ten freedom riders arrived at Montgomery, Alabama, from Atlanta, Georgia, by Greyhound bus on June 20, 1961. The police were patrolling the bus station and several small groups of spectators were moved away from the bus station by police. A crowd did gather across the street from the bus station, but no incident occurred.

[redacted] stated that the freedom riders would spend the night in Montgomery at the home of Reverend Ralph Abernathy and would probably proceed to Jackson, Mississippi, on June 21, or June 22, 1961; however, definite plans had not been formulated.

Three freedom riders who intended to fly to Tallahassee, Florida, from Washington, D. C., on June 20, 1961, changed their reservations. They are now scheduled to leave Washington at 5:45 p.m., June 23, 1961, by Eastern Air Lines arriving in Tallahassee at 10:46 p.m., Eastern Standard Time, June 23, 1961.

[redacted] and was released upon payment of a fine on June 6, 1961. He has stated to the press that he was disappointed over the caliber of people engaged in the freedom rides and he reportedly denounced the freedom rides as being communist inspired.

[redacted] Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), New York, has written to James Farmer, National Director, CORE, who is presently incarcerated in the Mississippi State Penitentiary as a freedom rider. This letter, which was made available by the prison censor, indicated that CORE will stage demonstrations at Federal buildings throughout the United States on Saturday, June 24, 1961. No further details were given. The letter also stated that [redacted] plans to arrange for James Farmer to be released on bond prior to July 5, 1961, so that he can participate in a telethon scheduled for July 7, 1961.

The Civil Rights Division has requested information as to whether facilities are segregated at the airports in Columbus, Georgia, and Tallahassee, Florida.

At Columbus, Georgia, the waiting room at the air terminal is not segregated. The rest rooms bear signs indicating segregation, but Negroes have recently used the white rest rooms without incident. Negroes are served at the snack bar but are not permitted to take seats. The snack bar is operated by a concessionaire who leases it from the county.

The facilities of the Tallahassee Municipal Airport are controlled by the Tallahassee City Commission, and [redacted] administers the details of operations. Just inside the main terminal entrance there is a sign with directional arrows pointing to the colored waiting room and rest rooms. The rest rooms bear signs indicating segregation.

The restaurant at the Tallahassee airport does not have any signs indicating segregation, but the City Manager has advised that restaurant employees are under instructions to refuse service to Negroes and to direct them to a small lunch counter adjacent to the restaurant. The lunch counter bears a sign which states "Colored."

The Attorney General

The restaurant is leased from the Tallahassee City Commission by the Savarin Corporation, a subsidiary of the American News Company. City Manager Hopkins advised that although the lease makes no reference to segregation, there is a positive verbal agreement to the effect that the lease will be terminated immediately if colored persons are served in the restaurant. [redacted] added that this verbal agreement was made prior to the signing of the lease and that he, all members of the Tallahassee City Commission and [redacted] American News Company, are parties to the verbal agreement.

Nine additional freedom riders were arrested upon their arrival in Jackson, Mississippi, yesterday and trials are tentatively scheduled for today. These were no incidents.

A total of 81 freedom riders had been arrested at Jackson since May 24, 1961. Seventeen have been released on bond, two have been released upon payment of fines and 62 remain in custody.

[redacted] the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), were in touch with [redacted] while they were in Atlanta. [redacted] who is the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) representative to the Freedom Ride Coordinating Committee, stated that they told him they were traveling as observers only and [redacted] asked them "not to touch anything" in Alabama because of the Federal injunction which is outstanding.

[redacted] traveled from Atlanta, Georgia, to Montgomery, Alabama, by Greyhound bus arriving in Montgomery at 11:40 a.m. (Central Standard Time), June 7, 1961. Upon their arrival they were served at the lunch counter in the Greyhound bus depot without incident.

After leaving the lunchroom, Lane and Sutton were interviewed by the press. They reportedly said that they were traveling for personal reasons and they disclaimed association with any organization in connection with their trip. They indicated that they would spend the night in Montgomery and would proceed to Jackson, Mississippi, by Delta Airlines on June 8, 1961, arriving in Jackson at 8:15 a.m. (Central Standard Time).

They also informed the press that they would not test the airport facilities at Jackson but that they were going to Jackson to confer with [redacted] representatives. They added that they had tested the facilities at Montgomery.

because they had heard that the facilities had been desegregated and they wanted to verify this.

Lane reportedly told the press that in a telegram to the Attorney General he had requested protection from the FBI and they intended to call upon the local FBI office for protection. No such call has been received and if any such request is made they will be referred to appropriate local authorities.

With the exception of the comments made to the press at Montgomery, Lane and Sutton are not known to have made any public announcement as to the purpose of their travel.

U. S. Attorney Bartwell Davis requested that we follow the activities of [redacted] while they were in Montgomery. This is being done and nothing of significance has been noted although they were to have dinner and spend the night at [redacted] residence. [redacted] is a local integration leader.

U. S. Attorney Davis received a telephone call from [redacted] of the Associated Press who inquired as to whether activities of [redacted] violated the Federal injunction against freedom riding in Alabama. Mr. Davis told [redacted] that he did not wish to comment until he had had an opportunity to discuss the case with U. S. District Judge Frank M. Johnson, Jr., who issued the restraining order.

The arrival of [redacted] in Montgomery was discussed with [redacted] of the Civil Rights Division by [redacted] the FBI. [redacted] indicated that in view of the fact that [redacted] had stated to the press that they were on a personal trip and had disavowed any connection with any organization with regard to their travel, their actions would not appear to be in violation of the court order.

Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary of the NAACP, arrived at Jackson, Mississippi, by plane at 1:55 p.m. (Central Standard Time), June 7, 1961. He made no effort to test the facilities at the airport and his arrival was without incident.

Wilkins was the principal speaker at the NAACP rally held at Jackson on the evening of June 7, 1961. He stated in his speech that the President was embarrassed in his meeting with Khrushchev because he could not honestly plead for democracy in Laos while Khrushchev was looking over his shoulder to read the headlines about Mississippi and Alabama. Wilkins further stated that the NAACP is starting a voters' registration campaign in seven cities in Mississippi. He did not identify the cities but he did say that if any violations are encountered the Federal authorities will be asked to investigate.

The Attorney General

A group of eight freedom riders is scheduled to leave New Orleans at 7:10 a.m. (Central Standard Time), June 3, 1961, aboard the Illinois Central Railroad train, "City of New Orleans." They are arriving at Jackson, Mississippi, at 10:10 a.m. (Central Standard Time), June 3, 1961, and intend to enter the white waiting room upon their arrival at the Jackson railroad station.

A freedom rally sponsored by the New York Division of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) and the Social Action Commission of the Empire State Baptist Convention was held on the evening of June 8, 1961, at Mount Olivet Baptist Church in New York City. Information has been received that a sum of over $1400 in checks alone was donated to the SCLC at this rally. Reverend Ralph D. Abernathy told the meeting that money alone was not sufficient without the presence of people from the North.

[redacted] of the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division, has advised that he has reliable information indicating that Negroes are planning a freedom ride in South Carolina on June 16, 1961. They allegedly intend to board Greyhound buses at Spartanburg, Greenville, Orangeburg, Florence, Charleston, Anderson and other cities in South Carolina, to travel to Columbia, South Carolina. There will allegedly be ten to twenty Negroes on each bus and upon arriving at Columbia, they plan to create confusion by purchasing tickets at the white ticket counters. They will then assemble at a church in Columbia for a mass meeting.

Negroes in South Carolina allegedly are planning a mass freedom ride to Columbia, South Carolina, on 6/15/61 from various cities in South Carolina.

Florida East Coast Railroad representative denies any segregation of their facilities during past two years and has received no complaint regarding alleged segregation on "Havana Special" at Jacksonville 6/5/61.

ACTION

A memorandum is being prepared for the information of the Attorney General.

Memorandum to Mr. Belmont

DETAILS

Three Negro freedom riders arrived in Jackson, Mississippi, from St. Louis aboard Delta Airlines at 4:59 p.m., Central Standard Time (CST), 6/7/61. They were arrested without incident when they attempted to use white facilities at the airport and trial has been tentatively scheduled for 3:00 p.m., CST, 6/8/61.

Six freedom riders departed from Nashville, Tennessee, by Trailways Bus at 1:10 a.m., 6/7/61, arriving at Memphis, Tennessee, 6:25 a.m. At Memphis they ate in the white restaurant and tested other white facilities in the bus station without incident. The group continued to Jackson, Mississippi, by Trailways Bus, arriving at 1:12 p.m., CST, 6/7/61. The three white members of the group entered the Negro waiting room and the three Negro members entered the white waiting room. All were arrested without incident and charged with breach of the peace when they refused to comply with instructions of the police that they move on. Trial is tentatively scheduled for 6/8/61.

Since 5/24/61, 81 freedom riders have been arrested at Jackson, Mississippi, 17 have been released on bond, two have been released upon payment of fines and 62 remain in custody.

Mark Lane, member of the New York State Legislature, and Percy Sutton, President of the New York Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), arrived at Montgomery, Alabama, 11:40 a.m., CST, 6/7/61, and in an interview with the press they stated that they would spend the night at the home of Reverend Solomon Seay, Sr., and would leave Montgomery at 7:36 a.m., CST, 6/8/61, via Delta Airlines, arriving at Jackson, Mississippi, at 9:13 a.m., CST.

Sutton and Lane advised the press that they did not intend to test the facilities at the Jackson airport but were going to Jackson to confer with constituents. They would not explain or expand on this although the press specifically questioned them in this regard. They did state they had tested the facilities at Montgomery because they had heard the facilities had been desegregated and wanted to verify this.

Lane reportedly told the press that in a telegram to the Attorney General he had requested protection from the FBI and that they intended to contact the local FBI Office for protection. No such contact has been made and no protection will be furnished. Any such request will be referred to appropriate local authorities.

United States Attorney Hartwell Davis, Montgomery, Alabama, received a telephone call from Rex Thomas of the Associated Press inquiring as to whether the activities of [] were in violation of the Federal injunction against freedom riding in Alabama. Davis told [] that he did not wish to comment until he has had an opportunity to discuss the case with U. S. District Judge Frank M. Johnson, Jr., who issued the restraining order. The judge is out of town and will return 6/12/61.

During the conversation with United States Attorney Davis, [] mentioned that the press had received information from the Governor's Office, alerting them to the arrival in Montgomery of Lane and Sutton.

Other than the comments made to the press at Montgomery by Lane and Sutton, no information has been received indicating that they publicly announced the purpose of their trip to Alabama.

[] Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), Atlanta, Georgia, advised on 6/7/61 that [] informed him when they passed through Atlanta that they were going to Alabama and Mississippi as observers only. [] the Freedom Ride Coordinating Committee, stated that he requested [] "not to touch anything" in Alabama because of the Federal injunction which is outstanding.

Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary, NAACP, arrived at Jackson, Mississippi, by plane at 1:55 p.m., CST. He made no effort to test the facilities at the airport and his arrival was without incident, 6/7/61.

Roy Wilkins was the principal speaker at an NAACP rally held in Jackson on the evening of 6/7/61. It was estimated that 1,200 persons were in attendance and they reportedly made a liberal financial contribution to NAACP although the amount involved was not made available. The meeting was held without incident.

Memorandum to Mr. Belmont

Wilkins stated at the NAACP rally that the President was embarrassed in his exchanges with Khrushchev because he could not honestly plead for democracy in Laos with Khrushchev looking over his shoulder to read the headlines about Mississippi and Alabama. No mention was made of the FBI or Department of Justice. Wilkins also stated that the NAACP is starting a voters registration campaign in seven cities in Mississippi. He did not identify the cities but he did say that if any violations are encountered they will ask Federal authorities to investigate.

[redacted] CORE representative [redacted] advised on 6/7/61 that a group of freedom riders consisting of four Negro males, three white females and one Negro female will depart from New Orleans at 7:10 a.m., CST, 6/8/61, via Illinois Central Train "City of New Orleans" to arrive in Jackson, Mississippi, 10:10 a.m., CST, 6/8/61. They will enter the white waiting room upon their arrival at the Jackson railroad station.

On 6/6/61 a group of Negroes went to the Jackson municipal zoo as previously planned and used the benches customarily reserved for white people. They were ignored by the police and no incident occurred.

The Governor said that he has always prided himself as supporting strong, efficient law enforcement and the statements by the Attorney General hurt his pride very deeply.

The Governor at first did not desire that [redacted] tell anyone of these instructions but [redacted] prevailed upon the Governor to permit him to advise SAC Held of the Mobile Office and Senior Resident Agent Spencer Robb at Montgomery.

Memorandum to Mr. Belmont

[redacted] has never seen the Governor so angry and there is nothing he can do at this time to change the Governor's attitude. Prior to the freedom rides the Governor had a very favorable opinion of the FBI and [redacted] this has not changed and the Governor has nothing against the Director or the Bureau but is taking this action solely to spite the Attorney General.

[redacted] has always been a good friend of the Bureau and has always given the Bureau full cooperation. [redacted]

[redacted] Although he is not certain at this time how far it will be necessary to carry this action, the Governor's instructions could involve not only the highway patrol but also the state investigative agency, as well as the Driver's License Bureau and the Automobile Registration Bureau. The press has reported that the Students Nonviolent Coordinating Committee will hold a meeting in Louisville, Kentucky, on 6/9/61 through 6/11/61. This will reportedly be attended by students from Washington, D. C., Baltimore, Maryland, Richmond, Virginia, and Louisville. Speakers are to include Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., James Farmer and Reverend Ralph B. Abernathy.

"The Louisville Defender," a weekly newspaper with a circulation among the Negro population in Louisville, has stated that the next mass freedom rides may begin in Louisville following the above conference and that these rides may be directed to South Carolina, Georgia, Little Rock, Arkansas, Florida, Louisiana and Mississippi.

It has been announced that speakers at the CORE rally to be held in Washington, D. C., 6/11/61, will include Victor Reuther, Presidential Assistant of the United Automobile Workers; James Carey, President of the International Union of Electrical Workers; James Baldwin, an author; and Joseph L. Rauh, Jr., Vice President of Americans for Democratic Action.

A freedom rally sponsored by the New York Division of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) and the Social Action Commission of the Empire State Baptist Convention was held on the evening of 6/5/61 at the Mount Olivet Baptist Church, New York City. Information has been received that over $1400 in checks alone was donated for the SCLC. Approximately 1,000 persons were in the church and another 2,000 listened to the rally through loud speakers set up outside the church. Reverend Ralph Abernathy told the meeting that money alone sent to Alabama and Mississippi, without the presence of people from the North, will prolong the fight for total freedom in all states.

[redacted] National Academy graduate, [redacted] South Carolina Law Enforcement Division, advised that he has reliable information indicating that Negroes are planning a freedom ride 6/15/61. They intend to board Greyhound buses at Spartanburg, Greenville, Orangeburg, Florence, Charleston, Anderson and other cities in South Carolina and will travel to Columbia, South Carolina. It was alleged that 10 to 20 Negroes will board each bus and upon arrival in Columbia they plan to create confusion by purchasing tickets at the white ticket counters. They will then assemble at a church in Columbia for a mass meeting.

It has been previously alleged that on 6/5/61 the conductor of the Florida East Coast Railroad train "Havana Special" at Jacksonville, Florida, segregated the passengers. [redacted]

[redacted] the railroad who cooperates closely with the Jacksonville Office, has emphatically stated that there has absolutely been no effort during the past two years to segregate the passengers on Florida East Coast Railroad trains or facilities and that his office has received no complaint regarding the alleged incident on 6/5/61.

CALLED RED VEHICLE

'CORE' Rapped In Gallion's Talk

Alabama Atty. Gen. MacDon-ald Gallion last night charged that the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) is "an active vehicle serving the causes of communism in America."

The attorney general accused "freedom riders" sponsors of a "deliberate attack . . . upon American as the last great bulwark against communism."

Speaking to about 2,500 persons at a pro-segregation Citizens Council rally at the State Coliseum, Gallion said U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy is supporting the freedom rides and is playing politics "fast and loose."

DISTURBED BY RIOTS

But he warned the audience that outbreaks like those recently in Montgomery, Birmingham and Anniston, "do not serve the cause of righteousness . . . or the cause of the South . . ."

"I charge here and now that the cause they (the freedom riders) serve is not the cause of freedom — it is not the cause of democracy — it is not the cause of religion — and it is not the cause of Americanism."

"It is a cold, calculated, deliberate attack upon America itself

. . . the very existence of America as the last great bulwark across the path of atheist Communist in the world."

Directing most of his attack on CORE, he said "because of its rather recent origin" it does not have the "Communist Party appendage to its record" in the files of the U.S. attorney general, and other government agencies.

Gallion said that seven of CORE's advisory committee members are listed in the files of the Senate internal security subcommittee, and "in addition to these seven, a number of others listed with CORE have associations with Communist front groups."

Mayor Earl James, before Gallion spoke, told the crowd that "these outside agitators are only concerned with promoting themselves and not with the welfare of any group of people."

Citizens Council Chairman, C. H. Lancaster, after his speech, said the council hopes to get evidence and present it to a federal grand jury, charging the U.S. attorney general with conspiring with the freedom riders.

NO ELABORATION

"We are taking steps to get rid of that colossal misfit . . ." he declared to the audience, but did not elaborate in his speech.

He outlined what he called a program of offense instead of defense in the fight to preserve segregation.

Commenting on the speech, CORE community relations director Marvin Rich said in New York, "Our purpose is to achieve an America for all, and we think all good Americans should share in working to achieve that purpose."

"We invite Mr. Gallion to work to make Alabama a state of which all American may be proud."

'Rider' Ban OK'd By Senate Group

A bill aimed at outlawing "freedom rides" in Alabama cleared the Senate Judiciary Committee today without a dissenting vote.

The measure, bearing the signatures of all 35 members of the Senate, is designed to stop segregation-testing bus rides through the state.

It provides a maximum penalty of a $300 fine and six months in jail for anyone who announces in advance and then carries out any acts "which are calculated to or will likely or probably so outrage the sense of decency and morals or so violate or transgress the customs, pattern of life and habits of the people of Alabama as to be likely to cause a riot or breach of the peace . . ."

AT BUS TERMINAL RIOT

Henley Given 30 Days, $100 Fine For Assault

A former reserve policeman who said he was there only as a spectator has been ordered to pay a $100 fine and serve 30 days in jail for assaulting two newsmen covering the arrival of "Freedom Riders" here May 20.

Claude V. Henley, 37, 340 Col-lingwood Ave., was convicted of assaulting two members of a Na-tional Broadcasting Co. team — cameraman Maurice Levy and soundman H. W. Risser.

Witnesses testified Henley hit

Levy several times and kicked him after he was knocked down or had fallen down in the middle of Molton street. Henley shoved or "stiff-armed" Risser, the Re-corder's Court was told.

City Recorder D. Eugene Loe found Henley guilty on both counts.

Loe called Henley "one of our well-known citizens" and conceded that the "local man probably thought he was doing a service to the community. Loe said the court could not agree that Hen-ley's actions fit in this category.

Loe said his court will always oppose violence without regard for race or creed. This will be particularly true of racial vio-lence, he declared.

The 30-day sentence was meted in the Levy beating, which was considered the more serious of the two cases. The assault on Risser, though only a shove, was serious in that it probably led to further attacks on the newsmen, Loe said in passing sentence.

Morris Dees, the defense attor-ney, said both convictions will be appealed.

Don Uhrbrock, a photographer for Life Magazine and a native of Georgia, testified he saw Hen-ley attack Levy in the area of the loading ramp at the Grey-hound Bus Terminal and continue to attack the cameraman as he retreated toward Molton street. Prosecutor Dave Crosland en-tered as evidence a series of pic-tures which he said showed Hen-ley in pursuit of Levy.

TRICKED MOB

The final Uhrbrock picture showed a fallen Levy with Hen-ley standing over him. The pho-tographer explained that he was able to save the film by pulling a trick on the mob.

After he had taken the pic-tures, Uhrbrock said he heard someone in the crowd yell "Get his film."

He said he handed someone in the mob an unexposed roll of film and was able to save the exposed roll. However, he said, he was severely beaten by the mob and one of his cameras was lost.

Uhrbrock testified he saw Hen-ley push Risser.

Herbert Kaplow, the reporter member of the NBC team, said

Henley asked him, "Are you one of them?"

"No," Kaplow said he answered.

Later, he said he saw Henley holding an open picket knife at his side. He did not see the defendant attempt to use the knife. He saw Henley hit Levy several times, he said. He did not see Henley push Risser.

QUESTIONED 'RIDERS'

Kaplow said he had been questioning the "Freedom Riders" about their future plans before the disorder broke out. Kaplow, Risser, Levy and another reporter followed the "rider" bus from Birmingham to Montgomery.

Levy, who calls Dallas, Tex., home, told the court, "My duty is to go where the story goes."

Levy said after his arrival here the NBC team immediately went to the unloading docks at the station and began questioning the "Freedom Riders" as the group unloaded. At that time, he said, there seemed to be nothing more than the usual bus station crowd in the area.

The cameraman said he did not see Henley until Henley hit him. Levy said he began retreating with Henley in pursuit. Every six or seven feet Henley would hit him, he told the court. After a few blows, several people began hitting him.

FINAL WITNESS

Risser was the final witness for the prosecution. His description of the incidents was similar to the others. He said he was kicked and hit on the side of the head during the melee.

Dees called his law partner, Millard Fuller, who testified that he talked with Levy last week when they happened to meet at Dannelly Field. Fuller said the conversation indicated Levy was not able to tell who was hitting him because of the confusion at the scene.

Maylon Nicholson, a reporter for the Alabama Journal and a defense witness, said Henley called Levy a "nigger lover" and hit him several times. He said he did not see Henley kick Levy and he did not see Risser get pushed.

Defense witness Gene Vann said he heard Henley say something to Levy and saw the cameraman turn from facing the "riders" to the direction of Henley. In the process, he said, the lens of Levy's camera hit Henley on the temple. It was then, he declared, that he saw Henley push Levy. He did not see Henley push or hit anyone else during the following battle.

Vann said he was only at the scene out of "curiosity" and said he did not go there with Henley.

HEARD HENLEY SPEAK

Bobby McKissick, Millbrook, said he heard Henley say something about a "nigger lover" before Levy turned, hitting Henley with the lens of the camera.

"Was Mr. Henley there getting the news?" Crosland asked. "Wasn't Mr. Levy doing what he was supposed to be doing when this man called him a nigger lover?"

Under cross-examination, McKissick admitted that the blow from the lens of the camera could have been accidental.

Henley said he was there "merely as a spectator."

"I was just driving by and saw a crowd," he testified. "I went there with no malice in my heart."

He said he pushed Levy, but only to ward off the camera.

"I blame it all on Mr. Levy," he said.

SHOWS WOUND

He said Levy kicked him on the shin. He showed the court a wound he said was caused by the blow. Later, he said, "I personally believe it was Mr. Levy" that struck the blow. Finally, he said it had to be Levy.

"I know one of the 'Freedom Riders' didn't come over and kick me."

Levy denied kicking Henley.

"Didn't you know he (Levy) was born and raised in Texas when you called him a nigger-loving Yankee?" Crosland asked Henley.

"I couldn't care less," he answered.

Henley said he pushed Levy but he did not kick him.

"I was tempted to," he said.

"Anyone would have been."

"I'm glad I controlled my temper," he added.

Memorandum to Mr. Belmont

DETAILS

The group of freedom riders which originated at San Francisco, California, and which proceeded from New Orleans, Louisiana, to Jackson, Mississippi, by train, arrived at 10:14 a.m., CST, 6/20/61. There were 14 in the group when it arrived at Jackson. They entered the white waiting room of the railroad station and were arrested. Each has been sentenced to four months in jail and fined $200.

There have been 131 freedom riders arrested at Jackson since 5/24/61. Forty-three have been released on bond, four have been released upon the payment of fines, and 84 remain in custody. All freedom riders in the Jackson City Jail and in the Hinds County Jail are eating.

Approximately ten freedom riders proceeded from Atlanta, Georgia, to Montgomery, Alabama, by Greyhound bus arriving in Montgomery at 5:01 p.m., CST, 6/20/61. Approximately 50 police officers were at the Montgomery bus station. Several small groups of spectators were present and were moved away from the bus station by police. A crowd did gather across the street from the bus station but there was no activity on their part.

Reverend Wyatt T. Walker advised the press that the freedom riders in Montgomery would spend the night with Reverend Ralph Abernathy. He also stated that the group does not have definite plans but will probably proceed to Jackson, Mississippi, on 6/21 or 6/22/61. [redacted] informed an Agent that he will advise the FBI as soon as definite plans have been formulated.

The bus station at Montgomery received three anonymous telephone calls on 6/20/61 alleging that bombs had been placed in the Greyhound bus station. The police cleared the area immediately after each call, but no bombs were found. The Montgomery police received an anonymous call at 6:15 p.m., 6/20/61, to the effect that a bomb had been placed in the Post Office to explode at 7:00 p.m. Post Office employees and police conducted a search with negative results.

Three freedom riders who held reservations to fly from Washington, D. C., to Tallahassee, Florida, on 6/20/61, canceled their reservations and made reservations to depart from Washington by Eastern Air Lines at 5:45 p.m., 6/23/61. They are scheduled to change planes at Atlanta and arrive at Tallahassee at 10:46 p.m., EST, 6/23/61.

Memorandum to Mr. Belmont

On 6/20/61 the Chicago, Illinois, police furnished a copy of an obscene threatening letter addressed to [redacted]. The letter was being processed in the Chicago Crime Laboratory and the Chicago police were guarding the victim and conducting investigation to identify the author of the letter. [redacted] was arrested as a freedom rider [redacted] and was released upon payment of a fine on 6/6/61. On 6/5/61 he stated to the press that he was disappointed over the caliber of people engaged in the freedom rides and recommended that others carefully investigate the group before joining the freedom riders. He has reportedly denounced the freedom rides as being communist inspired.

The Department has requested that we ascertain if segregation is required in the airport terminals at Columbus, Georgia, and Tallahassee, Florida.

The airport terminal at Columbus, Georgia, has a snack bar operated by a concessionaire who leases it from the county. There is no restriction as to serving any race, but Negroes are not permitted to take seats at the counter. The waiting room at the terminal is not segregated; however, there are separate rest rooms for white and colored which are so identified by signs but Negroes have recently used the white rest rooms without interference. The airport is under the jurisdiction of the county commissioners.

The airport at Tallahassee has separate rest rooms for white and colored which are so identified by signs. Just inside the main terminal entrance there is a sign with directional arrows pointing to the colored waiting room and rest rooms. The restaurant in the Tallahassee air terminal does not have any signs indicating segregation but the city manager has advised that restaurant employees are under instructions to refuse service to Negroes and to direct them to a small lunch counter adjacent to the restaurant. The lunch counter bears a sign which states "Colored." None of the drinking fountains in the terminal are marked in any way.

The Tallahassee Municipal Airport terminal and all of its facilities are governed by the Tallahassee City Commission. [redacted] is the authorized agent of the

City Commission for administering details of operations at the terminal. The terminal restaurant is operated by Savarin Corporation, a subsidiary of the American News Company, under a lease contract agreement with the City Commission. [redacted]

[redacted] advised that although the lease contract makes no reference to segregation, there is a strong positive verbal agreement calling for immediate termination of the lease in the event that colored patrons are served in the terminal restaurant. He said that this verbal agreement was made prior to the signing of the lease and was entered into by Hopkins as well as all members of the Tallahassee City Commission and [redacted] American News

Company.

DETAILS

[redacted] was arrested as a freedom rider at Jackson, Mississippi, on 6/19/61 when he entered the colored waiting room at the Greyhound bus terminal. [redacted] who is white, told police that he is [redacted] at Oklahoma State College, Stillwater, Oklahoma, and had traveled from Oklahoma by private automobile because he wanted to join the freedom riders in jail.

Since 5/24/61, 117 freedom riders have been arrested at Jackson. Thirty have been released on bond, four have been released upon payment of fines, and 83 remain in custody. All freedom riders at the Jackson City Jail and the Hinds County Jail are eating.

[redacted] Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), New Orleans, Louisiana, advised on 6/19/61 that a group of 15 freedom riders would depart New Orleans aboard the Illinois Central Railroad train, City of New Orleans, at 7:10 a.m., CST, 6/20/61, to arrive at Jackson, Mississippi, 10:20 a.m., CST (12:20 p.m., Washington, D. C., time) 6/20/61. This apparently is the group of freedom riders which traveled to New Orleans from San Francisco by train.

[redacted] Freedom Ride Coordinating Committee, Atlanta, Georgia, advised that seven or eight freedom riders including those who traveled to Atlanta from Nashville, Tennessee, 6/18/61, will leave Atlanta by Greyhound bus at 12:40 p.m., EST, 6/20/61, to arrive at Montgomery, Alabama, 4:55 p.m., CST (6:55 p.m., Washington time), 6/20/61. The group plans to spend the night in Montgomery and leave Montgomery at 11:30 a.m., CST, 6/21/61, for Jackson, Mississippi, via Trailways bus. They intend to test the facilities in Montgomery and Jackson.

The Los Angeles, California, press has reported that members of the Second Baptist Church, Los Angeles, contributed more than $2,000 in a special offering to finance a freedom ride leaving Los Angeles 7/12/61 for Jackson, Mississippi. A freedom ride rally is scheduled to be held at the church 6/25/61.

Julius W. Hobson, President, Washington, D. C., Chapter, CORE, advised on 6/19/61 that three freedom riders will depart from Washington by Eastern Airlines at 5:45 p.m., 6/20/61, to arrive in Atlanta at 7:42 p.m. They will leave Atlanta at 8:50 p.m., and will arrive at Tallahassee, Florida, at 10:46 p.m., EST, 6/20/61. Hobson stated that no freedom ride is scheduled to originate from Washington by bus, 6/21/61, as had been previously indicated.

It has been previously reported that freedom riders attended a "workshop" in a St. Petersburg, Florida, church on 6/16/61 and that [redacted] who admitted in 1954 that he had been a member of the Communist Party, may have been present. It has been determined that [redacted] was present and made some brief remarks but was not an advocate at the meeting.

At 12:12 a.m., 6/20/61, the Metropolitan Police Department, Washington, D. C., received an anonymous telephone call from a man who stated "I do not like freedom riders, therefore a bomb will go off in Union Station tonight." The Union Station was searched by the terminal police who found nothing of interest.

A reliable informant advised that Paul Emerson, editor of the Northwest Bureau of the "Peoples World," Seattle, Washington, has indicated an active interest in the freedom ride movement and has stated that he may attempt to sponsor a freedom rider from the northwest area. Emerson also indicated that if he can locate a freedom rider, he would like to sponsor his appearance in Seattle. The "Peoples World" is a West Coast communist newspaper.

SAC D. K. Brown, Jacksonville Office, advised that the group of Rabbis and ministers which had remained overnight in Tallahassee, Florida, had proceeded to the airport this morning and the restaurant facilities were still closed. The individuals were advised by the Chief of Police that he had a town of 50,000 to police and he could not afford protection to them and that he would withdraw all of the policemen with the exception of one officer.

Tallahassee police had maintained a large contingent on duty at the airport last evening and had escorted the freedom riders to a colored Baptist church for the night. Following the withdrawal of police, the [redacted] of Newark, New Jersey, who is a member of the group of Rabbis and ministers, called the resident agency at Tallahassee and later the FBI office in Jacksonville. He wanted to notify the FBI of the situation. He stated that the police had been affording them protection and that the Chief had withdrawn his officers. He advised that at that time there were two Tallahassee police officers and two Florida Highway Patrol officers at the airport. [redacted] did not have any information of any action contemplated against the freedom riders but gathered that there was a possibility that violence might result since the large police escort had been withdrawn.

[redacted] was informed that the matter of protection was, of course, the responsibility of the local authorities and that the FBI could not afford the group protection.

ACTION:

Informants of the Jacksonville Office have all been alerted. There has been no information received indicating any contemplated violence. Brown stated that there are no crowds gathered at the airport or in the vicinity of the airport.

 DATE 9/19/00 BY SP-4 JST/tyg
 #428602

Five freedom riders from Nashville, Tennessee, arrested Jackson, Mississippi, 1:15 p.m., 6/16/61. Tried in municipal court same date together with [redacted] freedom rider arrested 6/14/61. All found guilty and sentenced to four months and $200 fine.

One hundred and sixteen freedom riders arrested Jackson since 5/24/61. Twenty-nine have been released on bond, four have been released upon payment of fines, and 83 remain in custody.

All freedom riders in Jackson city jail are eating. Fifteen of those in custody at Hinds County Jail are refusing food.

Attorneys for three freedom riders arrested in Jackson earlier this month reportedly plan to file writs of habeas corpus in U. S. District Court. Writs may be filed this week end and will seek release of the three.

The Tucson, Arizona, Chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) reportedly plans to send five individuals to New Orleans, Louisiana, 6/19/61, for training in nonresistance. They will then presumably travel to Jackson as freedom riders.

A National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) sponsored meeting of approximately 40 Negro freedom riders was held in Columbia, South Carolina, on the night of 6/15/61. Leaders allegedly disappointed at small attendance. Plans made to use a nearby state park not ordinarily open to Negroes. Local authorities announced park would be closed 6/16/61, the date under consideration.

Daytona Beach, Florida, group of freedom riders, which began its trip 6/15/61, arrived Tampa, Florida, 6:49 p.m., 6/16/61. Facilities at various points tested without incident.

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont

Union and professional group of freedom riders which began trip at Washington, D. C., 6-13-61, left-Jacksonville, Florida, in two separate buses morning of 6-16-61. Bus station facilities were tested without incident. They traveled to St. Petersburg, Florida, arriving there afternoon of same day. Station facilities used or attempted at various points along the way without significant incident except for following.

Three members of one group arrested approximately 1:00 p.m. at Ocala, Florida, as result of argument with several white males in bus station waiting room. Charged with failure to obey lawful order of officer and attempt to incite riot. Were subsequently released on $1000 bond each posted by [redacted] member of group who remained behind for that purpose. All later rejoined their group at Tampa, Florida, International Airport.

A drunken white man reportedly made obnoxious remarks relative to freedom riders in St. Petersburg bus station. He was arrested on drunk charge by St. Petersburg police.

On afternoon and evening of 6-16-61, freedom riders attended "work shop" and public meeting in a St. Petersburg church. Mixed groups participated. Local Negroes were encouraged to follow up on integration efforts and some freedom riders related their experiences. Freedom riders then went to nearby Tampa International Airport where they met portion which had become detached at Ocala. All departed by plane for New York 12:57 a.m., 6-17-61.

During above trip car registered to [redacted] alleged Associated Press newsman, stopped for speeding by police at Zephyrhills, Florida. Car had been following one of the buses during trip.

Ten rabbis and ministers who stayed in Tallahassee on 6-15-61 were joined by three residents of that city. The group went to the airport on 6-16-61. Found airport facilities closed. After refusing to leave airport were arrested for unlawful assembly. Total of thirteen arrested. Chief of Police had withdrawn nearly all officers from airport earlier with statement he could not afford protection due to responsibility to city. Representative of group contacted our office and was told we could not give them protection.

Telephone booth in Washington, D. C., blown up at 8:14 a.m. 6-16-61. Remains of bomb appear similar to one used to blow up ash can previous night. Cooperative services offered and close liaison with police being maintained.

DETAILS

Five more freedom riders were arrested 6/16/61 at Jackson, Mississippi, upon their arrival from Nashville, Tennessee, when they tested bus station facilities. All were tried in municipal court, convicted and sentenced to four months in jail and $200 fine.

[redacted] freedom rider who was arrested in Jackson 6/14/61, was also tried, found guilty and received the same sentence. MISS

Since 5/24/61, 116 freedom riders have been arrested at Jackson. Twenty-nine have been released on bond, four have been released upon the payment of fines and 83 remain in custody. All freedom riders now in custody at the Jackson City Jail are eating. Fifteen of those in custody at the Hinds County Jail are refusing food.

It is reported that attorneys representing three of the freedom riders arrested in Jackson earlier this month intend to file writs of habeas corpus in United States District Court, Jackson. The writs will seek release of the three freedom riders and may be filed this week end. The three riders are reported to be [redacted] arrested 6/2/61, and [redacted] [redacted] both arrested 6/7/61.

The Tucson, Arizona, Chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) announced that five as yet unnamed citizens of Tucson would depart on Monday, 6/19/61, for New Orleans. They are to be trained there in nonresistance procedures by CORE workers and will presumably later travel to Jackson as freedom riders.

A meeting of approximately 40 Negro freedom riders was held at the Zion Baptist Church, Columbia, South Carolina, on the night of 6/15/61. It was sponsored by the South Carolina Conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) in support of CORE and the freedom riders. Leaders expressed disappointment at the small number of freedom riders who appeared for the meeting. Plans were announced to attempt to use facilities of Sesqui State Park on 6/16/61, which is near Columbia, and is not open to Negroes. Local authorities advised the park would be closed to everyone that date.

RE: FREEBUS

The Daytona Beach group of freedom riders continued their trip to Tampa where they arrived at 6:49 p.m., 6/16/61. No test was made of facilities there and the group, after determining that the next bus for Orlando, Florida, was scheduled to leave at 6:00 a.m., 6/17/61, proceeded to the residence of [redacted] NAACP. Facilities were tested at various points between Tallahassee and Tampa without incident. This mixed group began its trip on 6/15/61.

The union and professional group of freedom riders which left Washington, D. C., 6/13/61 spent the night of 6/15/61 in Jacksonville, Florida. This group departed Jacksonville by two separate buses on the morning of 6/16/61 after testing bus station facilities without incident. Efforts were made by one group in Dade City, Florida, to use the men's wash room. However, this was blocked off and there were no incidents.

Three of the members of one of these groups were arrested in Ocala, Florida, at approximately 1:00 p.m., 6/16/61, when an argument developed between freedom riders and a number of white males in the bus station waiting room. The three were charged with failure to obey the lawful order of an officer and attempting to incite a riot. Their bus departed Ocala, Florida, without them. The three were subsequently released on $1,000 bond each which was posted by [redacted] one of the members of the group who remained behind for that purpose. [redacted] and the three who were arrested then proceeded by bus to Tampa.

/ remaining

Both bus loads of freedom riders tested depot facilities in Tampa, Florida, without incident. They then traveled to St. Petersburg, Florida, where facilities were likewise tested without incident. Some of these freedom riders were interviewed by members of the press. An incident occurred at the station when a drunken white man made some obnoxious remarks relative to the freedom riders. He was arrested by St. Petersburg police on a drunk charge. On the afternoon of 6/16/61, members of both groups attended a "work shop" at the Second Bethel Baptist Church in St. Petersburg. Approximately 25 whites and Negroes are reported to have attended this meeting at which local Negroes were exhorted to follow up on integration of lunch counters and so forth. One of the participants was reported by sources to be [redacted] Florida Presbyterian College. He may be identical with [redacted] the subject of a security case. During interview by Bureau Agents in 1954, he admitted having been a member of the Communist Party. Other individuals participating are not known to have communist backgrounds.

At 8:00 p.m. a public meeting was held at the Second Bethel Baptist Church where the members of the freedom rider groups then in St. Petersburg were introduced to those in attendance. This was a mixed group of approximately 50 individuals. Various of the freedom riders spoke relative to their training and the arrest of three of their members at Ocala. The meeting adjourned shortly after 10:00 p.m. without incident and the freedom riders proceeded to nearby Tampa International Airport.

All of the members of the union and professional group departed by plane for New York City at 12:57 a.m., 6/17/61. This group included the three who were arrested in Ocala and [redacted] who had made their bond. These four individuals had subsequently arrived by bus at Tampa.

A car registered to [redacted] alleged to be an Associated Press newsman, was stopped for speeding at Zephyrhills, Florida. This car had been following one of the buses during its trip from Jacksonville to St. Petersburg.

It will be recalled that the group of rabbis and ministers who left Washington, D. C., on 6/13/61 traveled to Tallahassee where they split up at the Tallahassee airport. A portion of the group departed by plane for New York City on the afternoon of 6/15/61. The remainder were ejected from the airport by police when it was closed after the last flight departed that night.

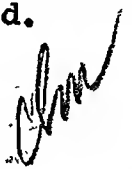

This remaining portion of the group spent the night at Tallahassee. On the morning of 6/16/61 they returned to the airport to find facilities still closed. They refused to leave and shortly after noon were arrested by Tallahassee police for unlawful assembly. Prior to being arrested, they were given the choice of leaving the airport or going to jail. Earlier, the Chief of Police, who had maintained a large contingent on duty at the airport the previous evening, withdrew practically all officers from the airport. He advised the freedom riders he could not afford them protection since he had a responsibility to the city of Tallahassee. A representative of the group contacted the Jacksonville Office in this regard and was advised that the FBI could not afford protection to the group since this was the responsibility of local authorities. *

At 8:14 a.m., 6/16/61, an explosion splintered a telephone booth at 15th Street and Massachusetts Avenue, Northwest, Washington, D. C. Subsequent examination by a telephone company official revealed the coin box to be in tact and apparently larceny was not the motive. FBI Laboratory personnel and Agents of the Washington Field Office proceeded to the scene to aid in a search of the area. The Laboratory reports that the device used in this explosion was similar to that utilized to blow up a trash can at Vermont and H Streets, Northwest, on the night of 6/15/61. It appears the devices were constructed from galvanized pipe and contained shotgun powder. A number of anonymous telephone calls have been received subsequent to the explosion of the telephone booth. These have threatened that bombs would go off in various locations. Pertinent information relative to these calls and the explosions have been furnished to all interested local and Federal Agencies.

Close liaison is being maintained with the Metropolitan Police Department and our cooperative facilities have been offered.

* The ten rabbis and ministers were joined by three residents of Tallahassee. The total number arrested at the airport were thirteen individuals.

The nine freedom riders who were arrested at Jackson, Mississippi, on June 21, 1961, were convicted on June 22, 1961. Each was sentenced to serve four months in jail and was fined $200.

SAVANNAH DIVISION
JUNE 14-15, 1961

The following is a summary of the activities of the "Freedom Riders" Professional Group - Section One, in the Savannah Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on June 14-15, 1961:

Carlyle Newton, Chief of Police, Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, on June 14, 1961, advised the first bus load of "Freedom Riders" he had been alerted to expect arrived in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, at 9:15 AM, June 14, 1961, and stayed only three to five minutes. One passenger got on the bus and no one got off the bus except one passenger, presumably a newspaperman, who left the bus and used a public telephone for about fifteen minutes. The bus left without him and he took a taxi to Georgetown, South Carolina, where he apparently overtook the bus.

Hubert Barker, Chief of Police, Conway, South Carolina, advised one group of "Freedom Riders" en route to Charleston, South Carolina, arrived at the Conway bus terminal at approximately 9:40 AM, June 14, 1961. This bus remained only a few minutes and departed without the group attempting to integrate the bus station.

Chief of Police William F. Kelly, Charleston, South Carolina, advised a group of seven "Freedom Riders" consisting of two Negro males, one Negro female, three white males and phats

The entire group had lunch on an integrated basis at the lunch counter and used the restroom facilities on an integrated basis. No crowd gathered at the bus station and no incidents occurred. The facilities at the Greyhound Bus Station, Charleston, have been integrated for about six months.

[redacted] National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) official at Charleston, told Chief Kelly this group, as well as a second section of this group due to arrive at 5:30 PM in Charleston, would spend the night in various private homes in the city.

This section departed Charleston at 6:45 AM via Greyhound bus, made a passenger stop at Walterboro, South Carolina, without incident, and arrived in Savannah, Georgia, at 9:25 AM, June 15, 1961.

Lieutenant [redacted] Detective Bureau, Savannah Police Department, advised the "Freedom Riders", consisting of three white males, one white female, two Negro males and one Negro female, arrived aboard Greyhound bus #M5373 at 9:25 AM. They used unmarked but traditionally white restrooms and white waiting rooms on an integrated basis and used the lunch counter on an integrated basis. They did not use the cafeteria in this bus station, which has been integrated for some months. They were met and interviewed by local newspaper and television reporters and photographers. Several police officers and Georgia Bureau of Investigation Agents were present.

The following is a summary of the activities of the "Freedom Riders" Professional Group - Section Two, in the Savannah Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on June 14-15, 1961:

Carlyle Newton, Chief of Police, Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, advised the second bus load of "Freedom Riders" he had been alerted to expect arrived in the Myrtle Beach Greyhound bus terminal at 2:55 PM. The group ate at the bus station lunch counter on an integrated basis and used the restroom facilities on an integrated basis without incident. No crowd gathered at the bus station.

This group was met at the bus station by [redacted] National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) official, Charleston, South Carolina, and [redacted] the group went to [] home directly from the station. [] told Chief Kelly this group, as well as the group that had arrived previously at 12:06 PM, would spend the night at various private homes in the city.

Chief Kelly further advised he heard at the bus station that the Negro female in this group told reporters at the bus station at Charleston that while the bus was in Conway, South Carolina, she attempted to enter an eating establishment not connected with the bus station. A man in the restaurant pulled a knife from under the table and told her she could not eat there.

Chief Kelly said he heard, however, that the white female in the group stated the restaurant owner was making salad and merely waved the knife at them when they attempted to enter the restaurant. Chief Kelly did not know the name of the restaurant in Conway.

Hubert Barker, Chief of Police, Conway, South Carolina, advised the second section of the group of "Freedom Riders" that went through Conway arrived at the Greyhound station, Conway, about 2:30 PM and were refused service at the snack bar in the station. This group consisted of Negroes and whites and used the white waiting room and white restroom. No arrests were made and no incidents occurred, to Barker's knowledge.

Chief Kelly, supra, advised the second section of the Professional Group had breakfast or lunch at the Greyhound bus station's integrated lunch counter and departed Charleston via Greyhound bus #6256 at 10:24 AM, June 15, 1961. This bus was due to make a rest stop at Beaufort, South Carolina, a lunch stop at Savannah, Georgia, and rest stops at Hinesville, Georgia, Jesup, Georgia, and Folkston, Georgia, en route to Jacksonville, Florida.

Chief of Police Ralph Ramsey, Beaufort, South Carolina, advised that Greyhound bus #6256 arrived at the Greyhound bus station, Beaufort, at 11:58 AM, June 15, 1961, and departed at 12:03 PM the same date. While in Beaufort one white male and one Negro male left the bus and used the white men's restroom facilities. Chief Ramsey said there were no incidents in Beaufort and no crowd gathered.

FREEDOM RIDE PROFESSIONAL GROUP
SECTION TWO

Chief Ramsey advised that he had observed a 1961 blue-green Ford bearing 1961 Georgia license [redacted] follow instant bus into Beaufort and out again.

[redacted] Georgia Bureau of Investigation Agent, advised he had been assigned, along with two other Agents, to cover Savannah while the "Freedom Riders" were en route through Georgia. He stated that a group composed of seven individuals consisting of three Negro males, two white males, one Negro female and one white female, arrived at the Savannah, Georgia, Greyhound bus station at 12:28 PM. Among the seven individuals he ascertained the identities of the following:

[redacted] Columbia University; n.y.

[redacted] Negro male, [redacted]
[redacted] Walls Temple AME Zion, Albany, New York;

[redacted] Negro male, [redacted] Walls Temple AME Zion, Albany, New York;

[redacted] white male, Christian Reformed Church, Manhattan, New York.

While at the Greyhound station the group used the traditionally white restrooms and waiting room on an integrated basis, bought drinks at the stand-up lunch counter and all ate in the cafeteria, both of which have been integrated for some months. There were no incidents and only about five curiosity-seekers were present among regular bus station traffic.

This group departed Savannah at 1:38 PM in Greyhound bus #6256 for Jacksonville, Florida. The driver of the bus indicated they were one hour late and in order to make up this time he would stop at Hinesville, Georgia, only long enough to discharge a passenger and would not stop at Jesup or Folkston, Georgia, unless necessary.

[redacted] advised this bus was being followed by a 1961 Ford bearing 1961 Georgia license [redacted] driven by a man they had identified as [redacted]

[redacted] Atlanta, Georgia, who had registration for instant car and is employed by Associated Press. He stated this bus was being escorted through Georgia by a GBI Agent. No incidents occurred while this group was in Savannah.

Radio Dispatcher [redacted] Georgia State Patrol, Hinesville, Georgia, advised Greyhound bus arrived in Hinesville, Georgia, at 2:27 PM and departed at 2:30 PM, June 15, 1961. Two passengers were discharged and two passengers embarked. None of the "Freedom Riders" left the bus and the bus passed through Hinesville without incident.

The bus arrived at Jesup, Georgia, at 3:06 PM and left at 3:08 PM without incident. None of the passengers got off the bus.

Instant bus passed through Folkston, Georgia, without incident and crossed the Georgia-Florida state line on U. S. Highway 1 and 23 at 4:24 PM, June 15, 1961.

FREEDOM RIDE
INTERFAITH GROUP
SAVANNAH DIVISION
JUNE 14-15, 1961

The following is a summary of the activities of the "Freedom Riders" Interfaith Group in the Savannah Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on June 14-15, 1961:

Chief J. Preston Strom (NA), South Carolina Law Enforcement Division, Columbia, South Carolina, advised on June 14, 1961, a group of "Freedom Riders" consisting of eight white, four Jewish and six Negro Clergymen, accompanied by a man identified only as a member of the New York press, arrived Sumter, South Carolina, 2:30 PM from Raleigh, North Carolina, on a Greyhound Bus labeled "Miami Express," after making a three-minute stop for passengers 12:27 to 12:30 PM at Bennettsville, South Carolina. No "Riders" left the bus at Bennettsville.

This bus stopped at Evans Restaurant, a regular bus restaurant stop, on the outskirts of Sumter, South Carolina. The "Freedom Riders" asked to be served meals on an integrated basis. [redacted] Evans Restaurant, advised them he had available facilities for both white and Negro races and would serve them on a segregated basis. The spokesman for the group advised [redacted] the group was traveling interstate. [redacted] replied he had no official contract with the Greyhound Bus Company and served meals only on a segregated basis. The spokesman for the group then made a telephone call from the public phone booth to New York and, after completing the call, the group boarded the bus without seeking further service in Evans Restaurant. There were about thirty white spectators present and no friction developed.

The bus was then driven about two miles distance to the Greyhound Bus Station, Sumter, South Carolina, where the group left the bus and entered the waiting rooms and restrooms on an integrated basis. There are two waiting rooms and two sets of restrooms in the bus station. They are not marked for "colored" or "white" but by tradition are used on a segregated basis..

The press, television newsmen, state, county and local law enforcement officers were present both at Evans Restaurant and the bus station in Sumter. About twenty-five spectators were present at the bus station and no racial incidents occurred.

The group left the bus station on an integrated basis in a taxi operated by a white driver, making several trips, and gathered at the Emanuel Negro Baptist Church with known National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) leaders of Sumter.

The group had their evening meal on an integrated basis at McClain's Restaurant, a Negro restaurant on South Main Street, Sumter.

The Interfaith Group departed Sumter by Greyhound bus at 12:45 AM, June 15, 1961, for Savannah, Georgia.

Lieutenant [redacted] Savannah, Georgia, Police Department, advised a group of nineteen individuals, including eight white, four Jewish and six Negro Clergymen, and one reporter, arrived at the Greyhound Bus Station, Savannah, from Sumter, South Carolina, at 3:41 AM, June 15, 1961. The group had coffee at a stand-up lunch counter and used the two waiting rooms and two sets of restrooms on an integrated basis. These waiting rooms and restrooms are not marked as to "colored" or "white" but by tradition are used on a segregated basis. The lunch counter and the cafeteria, which was closed at this hour, have been operated for some months on an integrated basis.

FREEDOM RIDE, INTERFAITH GROUP

No incidents occurred, no crowd gathered and the group departed Savannah at 4:19 AM for Jacksonville, Florida, and were scheduled to arrive in Jacksonville at 7:25 AM.

Agent [REDACTED] Counter Intelligence Corps, Savannah, was alerted at 3:47 PM, June 14, 1961, to the information that the "Freedom Riders" would pass through the Savannah area on June 14 and 15, 1961. He stated they would cover the arrivals of these groups and alert other CIC Agents in the Third Army area.

FREEDOM RIDERS
RACIAL MATTERS

A source advised on June 16, 1961, three Freedom Riders (FR), all from the Chicago, Illinois area, are scheduled to depart Chicago, Illinois via Grayhound Bus at 7:15 p.m. on June 16, 1961.

These FR are scheduled to arrive in Nashville, Tennessee on the morning of June 17, 1961. In Nashville, the FR will contact the organizations, Student Non-Violence Coordinating Committee and the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE). It is believed that these FR will receive non-violent protest type of instruction and training by Nashville CORE and then proceed to Jackson, Mississippi, possibly on June 18, 1961.

The three persons scheduled to depart Chicago at 7:15 p.m. on June 16, 1961, are as follows:

[redacted]	female, age [redacted]	b. APPROX [redacted]
[redacted]	marital status, [redacted]
[redacted]	male, age [redacted]	b. APPROX [redacted]
[redacted]	marital status [redacted]
[redacted]	male, age [redacted]	b. APPROX [redacted]

This source advised on June 14, 1961, that [redacted] male, age [redacted] marital status single, and a student at University of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois, departed Chicago the evening of June 14, 1961, as an FR scheduled to arrive in Nashville, Tennessee the morning of June 15, 1961. [redacted] was to have contacted Nashville CORE and the Student Non-Violence Coordinating Committee and then proceeded to Jackson, Mississippi, possibly by June 16, 1961, as an FR.

This source continued on June 16, 1961, that within the past several days, an FR had been arrested in the South and that this FR had been quoted in the newspapers to the effect that he became an FR for the sole purpose of returning to his home in the South from the North. Further, this FR commented that he had met an FR who was a Communist.

ENCLOSURE

157-387-333

CG 157-81

The Communist Party, USA, has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The source continued on June 16, 1961, that because of the above, CORE is attempting to allow only dedicated individuals volunteer as FR. In Chicago, the FR must submit in writing three references, why the person wants to become an FR, receive instruction and training on non-violent protest type techniques and again in writing, tell why he continues to want to be an FR.

The source said Chicago CORE had originally planned to send a larger group of FR to the South, but because of the above mentioned incident, only three persons passed Chicago CORE's final screening on June 16, 1961.

G-2, Chicago, was advised of the information concerning [redacted] on June 14, 1961. They were advised of the remaining information mentioned above, from this source, on June 16, 1961.

DETAILS

Since 5/24/61, 116 freedom riders have been arrested at Jackson, Mississippi. Thirty have been released on bond, four have been released upon the payment of fines and 82 remain in custody. All freedom riders in the Jackson City Jail and in the Hinds County Jail are eating.

A group of three or four freedom riders left Nashville, Tennessee, at 10:30 p.m., 6/18/61, by Greyhound bus scheduled to arrive in Atlanta, Georgia, at 6:40 a.m., EST, 6/19/61.

[redacted] of the Freedom Ride Coordinating Committee in Atlanta, advised that the freedom riders from Nashville will be joined with nine others in Atlanta and will leave Atlanta by bus, 6/19/61, for Montgomery, Alabama, and Jackson, Mississippi. Time of departure had not been determined on the night of 6/18/61, but details of the trip were to be worked out on the morning of 6/19/61. Atlanta following and will advise.

Information has previously been received regarding a group of freedom riders who were to travel from San Francisco, California, to New Orleans, Louisiana, by train and who were to proceed from New Orleans to Jackson, Mississippi, on 6/19 or 6/20/61. The "San Francisco Chronicle," 6/16/61, stated that 15 freedom riders were departing for Jackson, Mississippi, and identified one of them as Father G. H. ~~Muse~~, an Episcopal minister. It has been alleged that on 5/7/61, Father Muse, Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd, Berkeley, California, preached a sermon which was described as a bitter denunciation of U. S. policies and in which Father Muse branded former President Eisenhower as a liar with regard to the U-2 incident. La

The "Los Angeles Times," 6/17/61, related that 13 freedom riders passed through Los Angeles, 6/16/61, en route to New Orleans. The group was described as consisting of nine white people and four Negroes, all college students from the San Francisco Bay area with the exception of one freedom rider who was described as an Episcopal minister. It was stated that the Reverend Grant H. Muse, Pastor of the Good Shepherd Church, Berkeley, California, was accompanying the group and that the group was under the leadership of Tom ~~Roland~~, a 24-year-old white student from the University of California who is working on a Ph.D. in bio-chemistry. La

B. APPROX [redacted]

It has previously been reported that the group of rabbis and ministers who left Washington, D. C., 6/13/61, for Tallahassee, Florida, split into two units at Tallahassee, 6/15/61. One group returned to New York, 6/15/61, and the other group remained in Tallahassee where they were arrested, 6/16/61, when they refused to leave the airport.

Farris Bryant, Governor of Florida, issued the following statement on 6/16/61:

"Florida has accorded to the freedom riders the full protection of her laws. Regardless of cost or convenience, their trip across Florida was made peaceful and without incident. Unfortunately these people were not willing to leave Florida without creating discord and securing attendant publicity. In the last ten minutes of their scheduled stay, they embarked upon a new course designed to make trouble. If not deterred by local authorities they would have succeeded with damage to the poise and dignity of this state. We offer the full protection of the law to all in Florida who seek to pursue lawful purposes, but we issue no licenses granting immunity from arrest to those who violate our laws by their actions. Neither the cause nor the composition of any group of people frees them from their obligation as citizens."

The rabbis and ministers who were arrested at Tallahassee, 6/16/61, were released at 2:15 p.m., 6/17/61, upon payment of $500 bond each. Trial has been set for 6/22/61 on the charges of unlawful assembly. [redacted]

[redacted] remained in Tallahassee while the remainder of the group departed by air at 3:55 p.m., 6/17/61. They returned to Newark, New Jersey, without further incident, however preparations were made to close Tallahassee airport facilities if they again attempted to use them before leaving. F.L.A.

With regard to the freedom riders who left Daytona Beach, Florida, 6/15/61, and arrived in Tampa, Florida, 6/16/61, this group returned to Daytona Beach in private automobiles on the night of 6/16/61. [redacted]

[redacted] has been quoted as saying that he was quite pleased with the reception which they received in Tampa. There were no incidents.

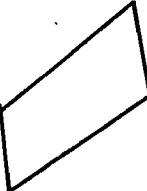

An informant advised on 6/17/61 that members of the De Land, Florida, Klavern, Florida Ku Klux Klan, were contemplating taking action because the freedom riders had been given full access to restaurant facilities at the Daytona Beach bus depot. They were considering assembling a group of undesirable Negroes described as "jailbirds and alcoholics" to arrive at the Daytona Beach Greyhound bus terminal, Sunday morning, 6/18/61, between 10:00 a.m., and noon, at which time they would demand service at the terminal restaurant. This time was selected because a large number of churchgoers have coffee at the terminal during these hours. No such incident occurred.

D. C.,

Julius W. Hobson, President, Washington/Chapter, Congress of Racial Equality, advised that the next proposed trip of freedom riders originating at Washington is scheduled to depart 6/21/61. He stated this will consist of a small group from New York City, two people from Philadelphia and two from Washington, D. C. They will travel by regularly scheduled bus but it has not yet been determined whether they will go by Trailways or by Greyhound, nor was Hobson able to furnish their destination.

The June 15, 1961, "St. Petersburg Independent," a daily newspaper, St. Petersburg, Fla., has an article reporting that American Legion Post No. 14, St. Petersburg, Fla. has asked for a "Federal investigation of a Florida man who sent 'telegrams' naming President KENNEDY and other top Americans as Red conspirators." A telegram accusing KENNEDY, EISENHOWER, and cabinet members with conspiring with a secret Red group in New York to stir up racial trouble through Freedom Riders was sent to the post by GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE of Satsuma, Fla.

The article further reported that J. PARNELL THOMAS, 1948-49 Chairman of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, now living in St. Petersburg and active in Post No. 14, to counter DEATHERAGE's program, on June 15, asked FRANCIS WALTER of the HCUA to check DEATHERAGE's background and sources of income for sending similar telegrams over the South.

DEATHERAGE's telegram was addressed to Gov. JOHN PATTERSON, Montgomery, Ala., and urged PATTERSON to "stick to your guns," referring to methods of handling recent Negro and White freedom riders, etc.

THOMAS is quoted in the article as stating that DEATHERAGE has sent copies of his telegram to various veterans groups and organizations throughout St. Petersburg and the South. Post No. 14 spokesmen stated the telegram would "divide Americans and provoke racial disorders."

The following observations were made at the Jackson Municipal Airport Terminal, Jackson, Mississippi, on June 7, 1961.

Delta Airlines Flight #465 from St. Louis, Missouri to Jackson, Mississippi arrived at 4:55 PM CST.

Of the passengers who alighted from this plane, one Negro male was observed to enter the Terminal Building, walk toward the white men's restroom where he stopped near the door, then turned and retraced his steps into the waiting room. He stopped, turned and walked back to the white men's restroom where he began to enter the door. At this point, Captain [redacted] Jackson Police Department, was observed to speak to the Negro male and after a short time, the Negro male left in the custody of another officer walking in the direction of the main entrance of the terminal.

A Negro female who had alighted from this plane was observed to enter the Terminal Building and walk to the white women's restroom. As she reached the door of the restroom, Captain [redacted] of the Jackson Police Department was observed to speak to her and shortly thereafter she left the Terminal in the custody of another officer.

The following was observed at the Jackson Municipal Airport, Jackson, Mississippi, June 7, 1961.

Delta Airlines Flight #465 arrived at the Airport at 4:59 PM. The passengers from this plane walked to the lobby of the Airport Terminal.

One of the individuals who entered the lobby was a Negro male approximately 5' tall. He walked toward the direction of the ticket counter. There was then observed a Negro female entering the lobby about 5' 6" in height and she too walked toward the ticket counter.

Several minutes after this time a Negro male, approximately 5' 10" tall entered the lobby, stood in the entrance then walked toward the restaurant to the left. The restaurant is listed as Cicero's Airport Restaurant. This Negro male hesitated, then entered this restaurant, and sat down at a table.

Captain [redacted] Jackson, Mississippi, Police Department, in uniform, was seen to say something to the individual in the restaurant, which was not heard. The Negro male then got up and walked out of the restaurant accompanied by two or three police officers. He was walked to the front of the airport and sat in a police car there as directed for several minutes until a Police Patrol Wagon drove up to the car and the Negro male got in the Patrol Wagon.

There appeared to be about two or three people in the restaurant when the individual entered, and these appeared to be employees.

Nothing which appeared to be an incident was observed to happen and the police officers present appeared to have no equipment other than the usual sidearms.

It is estimated that about twenty minutes passed from the time the Negro male arrived at the airport, and the time he was put in the Patrol Wagon.

FREEDOM RIDERS-MISC.

Following is the text of a telegram which was sent to the Attorney General by Governor Hollings:

"South Carolina deplores violence and will protect all citizens. However, while investigating incidents of violence involving self-styled 'Freedom Riders,' respectfully request 'Freedom Riders' be investigated to determine their record of disobedience to law and order as evidence of premeditation of breach of public peace. One arrested in South Carolina, i.e., James Douglas Peck, official in Congress of Racial Equality and editor of CORE newspaper Corelator, has record of eight arrests, including draft-dodging, disorderly conduct, picketing, embassy, trespassing Nevada Test Site, and contempt of court."

TO : Mr. Belmont ABR

DATE: June 16, 1961

FROM : C. A. Evans *CEA*SUBJECT: RE FREEDOM RIDERS - misc.

[redacted] the Attorney General, has made available the contents of a telegram to the Attorney General from Governor Hollings of South Carolina. In this telegram the Governor requests that while investigating incidents of violence involving the Freedom Riders they in turn be investigated to determine their record of disobedience to law and order. The Governor's telegram states that James Douglas Peck, an official in the Congress of Racial Equality, has a record of eight arrests including draft dodging, disorderly conduct, picketing an embassy, trespassing on a Nevada Test Site and contempt of court.

[redacted] advised he had been instructed by the Attorney General to call Governor Hollings and explain the Department's position in this matter, which confines investigation to allegations of violations of Federal statutes.

It is interesting to note that the Governor's list of arrests for Peck corresponds closely with those contained in our Identification Division files under FBI number 3150731. In this regard, it is noted that a fingerprint card was submitted by the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division dated May 10, 1961, showing an arrest for Peck for possession of untaxed liquor and thus Peck's record in the Identification Division would have been available to the Governor since it was sent out in response to the fingerprint card submitted by the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division.
